Queens Jubilee Event June 3rd, 2022

The Community Committee proposes an event in Higginson Park on Friday 3 June to celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee.

Named "Party like the Queen". The park will be open to everyone to come in and join in a day of celebration. The day will include family entertainment for all ages, based on a 1950's theme. There will be music, food and drink stalls, entertainment and vintage cars and residents can bring their own picnics. A detailed event plan is being drawn up with the day starting at 11.00am and finishing at 5pm. The proposal is for a break-even budget, already included in the 2022/23 budget and an additional spend of up to £5,000 is recommend to be taken to full Council for approval to come from the predicted surplus on the 2020/21 Budget.

RECCOMENDED

That members agree to delegate responsibility for the detailed planning of this event to a working group of Mayor Richard Scott, Cllr Chris Hoyle, Cllr Colleen Stapley and Officers.

That an addition to the existing budget of a spend of up to £5,000 to be taken from the predicted surplus from the 2020/21 budget be recommended to full council at their next meeting.
