Dear Robert,

Thank you for your invitation but I fear you might be getting ahead of yourself. Your planning application for the Marlow studios has yet to be determined and I therefore feel that it's quite inappropriate to state that the film studios will be located in my Ward. "Might" would have been a better word to use.

As your application has yet to be determined, I believe it would be wrong of me to attend this event and so I respectfully decline.
