INTRODUCTION AND WELCOME

Rev Sarah Jones
All Saints' Church

BIDDING

Let us offer our thanksgivings to Almighty God, for the victory achieved on land, at sea and in the air, and for the liberation of so many from the cruelty of occupation and oppression, let us give thanks for the heroism and courage of those who serve in the armed services who work in civil defence, hospitals and relief agencies, in businesses, shops and farms and let us pray for those who endure captivity, torture or death that others might be free

HYMN: Praise to the Lord Words J Neander/Music from Praxis Pietatis Melica

Marlow Town Band

1. Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of Creation; O my soul, praise him,
for he is thy health and salvation:
All ye who hear, now to his temple draw near,
Joining in glad adoration.

3. Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and defend thee;
surely his goodness and mercy shall daily attend thee: ponder anew what the Almighty can do, if to the end he befriend thee.

2. Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth, shieldeth thee gently from harm, or when fainting sustaineth:
hast thou not seen, how thy heart's wishes have been granted in what he ordaineth?

4. Praise to the Lord,
O let all that is in me adore him!
All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before him!
Let the Amen sound from his People again: gladly for ay we adore him.

REMEMBRANCE

Let us remember before God and commend to his sure keeping those who have died for their country in war; those whom we knew and whose memory we treasure and all who have lived and died in the service of humanity

PRAYERS

A Prayer for lives shattered by war

Hilary Martin
Town Clerk

Loving God, we pray for all who are bereaved and who suffer as a result of war:
for the injured and disabled, for the mentally distressed, and for those whose faith in God and humankind has been weakened or destroyed.

For the homeless and refugees, for those who are hungry, and for all who have lost their livelihood and security.

Bring us all, with them, to your eternal joy;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

A Prayer for the Armed Forces

Lt Col Shaun Murphy

Almighty God,
stretch forth your mighty arm to strengthen and protect the armed forces:
grant that meeting danger with courage and all occasions with discipline and loyalty, they may truly serve the cause of justice and peace;
to the honour of your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

A Prayer for Peace

Sgt Ben Thomas

God of our joy and gladness, hear our prayer for the peace of this world and bring us at last, with all our companions in faith, to the peace of the city where you live and reign, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, now and for all eternity. Amen

A Prayer for the Sovereign

Deputy Lieutenant of Buckinghamshire

Naomi Riches MBE DL PLY

Almighty God, the fountain of all goodness, bless our Sovereign Lord, King Charles, and all who are in authority under him; that they may order all things in wisdom and equity, righteousness and peace,
to the honour of your name, and the good of your Church and people;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

All

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen

I am not a badge of honour,
I am not a racist smear,
I am not a fashion statement,
To be worn but once a year,
I am not glorification Of conflict or of war.
I am not a paper ornament
A token,
I am more.

I am a loving memory,
Of a father or a son,
A permanent reminder
Of each and every one.

I'm paper or enamel I'm old or shining new,
I'm a way of saying thank you,
To every one of you.

I am a simple poppy
A Reminder to you all,
That courage faith and honour,
Will stand where heroes fall.

FRENCH NATIONAL ANTHEM

Marlow Town Band

Allons, enfants de la Patrie Le jour de gloire est arrivé!
Contre nous de la tyrannie, L'étendard sanglant est levé, (twice) Entendez-vous dans les campagnes!
Mugir ces féroces soldats?
Ils viennent jusque dans nos bras.
Égorger nos fils et nos compagnes!

Aux armes, citoyens!
Formez vos bataillons!
Marchons, marchons!
Qu'un sang impur Abreuve nos sillons!

NATIONAL ANTHEM

Marlow Town Band

God save our gracious King!
Long live our noble King!
God save the King!
Send him victorious
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us
God save the King.

Thy choicest gifts in store
On him be pleased to pour,
Long may he reign.
May he defend our laws,
And ever give us cause,
To sing with heart and voice,
God save the King.

THE BLESSING

Rev Sarah Jones

And all those who took part in today's Ceremony of Remembrance

Today we are here to remember the dead of the Armed Forces and all those who have died as a result of war and conflict.

The Poppy, as a symbol of Remembrance, had its centenary last year. A Frenchwoman called Anna Guérin who was inspired by a Canadian Army Surgeon Lt Col John McCrae's poem "In Flanders Field" which was published in 1915 (and is reproduced at the end of this Service sheet). She thought the idea of adopting the poppy as a symbol of Remembrance and hope for a peaceful future could catch on.

An American lady called Moina Michael was also impressed and was responsible for the introduction of the Poppy to the USA. Madame Guérin took the idea to Canada and the UK, six weeks before the first Remembrance Day Service which was due to be held on 11th November 1921. She took her idea to the Legion who were initially sceptical but took up her offer to make a million poppies in France at her own expense for distribution on Remembrance Day in the UK. A further 8 million were ordered to be produced in Britain. The Legion's National President, Earl Haig, declared that it should become an annual feature. The Poppy has enabled the Royal British Legion to raise funds to enable it to fulfil its caring, campaigning and Remembrance roles ever since.

Although the fallen of World War 1 and 2 have tended to predominate there have been many operations and or conflicts since 1945. To name the locations where there has been the heaviest loss of life, Palestine; Malaya; Korea; Egypt; Cyprus; Northern Ireland; Falklands; Afghanistan and Iraq. It is essential that all those that have fallen since the end of WW2 are not forgotten. The total number of fallen is in the order of 7190. There have only been 3 years during this period that a British Service person has not made the ultimate sacrifice whilst on operations – they are 1968, 2016 and 2023.

The sacrifices that have been made by our forces and those of our allies have enabled the freedoms which are essential for a civilised society and which we have been able to enjoy.

However, on Remembrance Sunday we must not only remember those that fell but also those that have lost loved ones and the civilian populations that have been directly affected by conflicts. Moreover, we must also remember all those that have been injured in body or mind and those who are yet to suffer from the events they have experienced or witnessed.

Let us continue to wear the poppy with pride and remember the debt we all owe to so many:

Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. John 15:13

Lt Col Shaun Murphy, Chairman, Marlow Branch

IN FLANDERS FIELD

In Flanders fields the poppies blow Between the crosses, row on row That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly Scarce heard amid the guns below

We are the Dead. Short days ago We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow, Loved and were loved and now we lie
In Flanders fields

Take up our quarrel with the foe;
To you from failing hands we throw The torch; be yours to hold it high,
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields
